(a) Limitation on Combined Motions. A motion for relief from the 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) stay shall not contain additional requests for relief, except for abandonment and/or adequate protection regarding the same asset. When other requests for relief are impermissibly combined with a motion for relief from the 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) stay, the motion for stay relief (and any related abandonment and/or adequate protection) will be heard. The impermissible requests for relief will only be considered when separately filed.

(b) Procedure. Procedure for prosecuting and responding to a request for relief from the stay is controlled by a Notice of Preliminary Hearing and Prehearing Order issued by the Clerk after the filing of the motion.

(c) Continuance of Preliminary or Final Hearing. The agreement of all parties to continue the preliminary or final hearing of a request for relief from the stay excuses the attendance of counsel if a joint motion and agreed order to continue are filed on or before the second business day prior to the preliminary or final hearing. Otherwise, announcement of an agreement to continue may be made by counsel at the first call of the preliminary hearing docket.

Agreed orders continuing the preliminary hearing of a request for relief from the stay shall specify the date and time of the continued hearing, shall continue the stay in effect and include a certificate of service consistent with LBR 9013-3.

(d) Order Granting Relief from Automatic Stay. In Chapter 7, 12 and 13 cases, orders granting relief from the automatic stay in 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) must comply with the following provisions.

(1) Affected Collateral. Order must describe the real or personal property that is security for the movant's debt.

(2) Form of Order. The forms in Appendix E shall be used when there is Affected Collateral and: (a) no opposition to the motion for stay relief was filed; (b) any filed opposition was withdrawn; or, (c) any opposition was overruled by the court at the Scheduled Hearing. Appendix E forms are available at <www.tnmb.uscourts.gov>.

(3) Abandonment by Trustee. If the motion for stay relief states that the Affected Collateral is burdensome or of inconsequential value to the estate, and the trustee does not oppose stay relief, then the forms in Appendix E-3 or E-4 shall be used. Abandonment is only effective if the trustee approves the order for entry.

(4) FED. R. BANKR. P. 4001(a)(3) Stay. If the motion for stay relief requests that FED. R. BANKR. P. 4001(a)(3) not apply and there is no opposition to that request, then the forms in Appendix E-2 or E-4 shall be used.

(5) Agreed Orders. This LBR 4001-1(d) is not applicable when a motion for stay relief is resolved by agreed order.

(e) Agreed Order Granting Stay Relief and/or Abandonment.

(1) Any agreed order which grants stay relief and/or abandonment with respect to consumer debt when no motion is filed shall include the following language: “Any objection to this agreed order must be filed within 14 days of the entry of the order.”

(2) Pursuant to FED.R.BANKR.P. 4001(d)(4), the agreed order shall be served upon any party who has an interest in collateral or is jointly obligated.

(f) Agreed Order Granting Adequate Protection Payments. Any agreed order which includes provisions for adequate protection payments shall be filed as a Motion for Approval of Agreed Order consistent with Fed R. Bankr. (2) If the debtor is a partnership, each of the general partners;

(3) If the debtor is a small business debtor, the senior management personnel (the person(s) occupying the position(s) of chief financial officer, chief operations officer, and chief management officer or comparable positions are presumed to be the senior management personnel);

(4) If any corporate, limited liability company or partnership debtor deems the persons designated above inappropriate, prompt motion shall be made consistent with LBR 9013-1 for relief from this rule and for the designation of some other or additional natural person or persons;

(5) The natural person or persons who will perform acts required to be performed by the debtor shall be identified by name, title and address at the time of the commencement of the case

The deposit may only be tendered in the form of a cashier's check, money order or certified check made payable to the lessor (not the Clerk of the Court). Failure to furnish proof of insurance shall be presumed to mean no insurance is in effect. The proof of insurance must state that coverage will continue for at least 60 days from the date of the 11 U.S.C. § 341 meeting. On or before the date the insurance coverage lapses, proof of renewal or new insurance coverage must be provided to the trustee and the creditor.

CODE ANN. § 55-3-101; provided, however, that the items of transportation excluded from the registration requirements in TENN. (2) The debtor shall be enjoined from using the motor vehicle as long as the motor vehicle remains uninsured.

(3) If the debtor fails to provide proof of re-insurance to the creditor within 3 business days following delivery of the notice of lapse, the debtor shall surrender the motor vehicle to the creditor or the creditor may take possession of the motor vehicle securing its claim and hold the same pending proof of insurance by the debtor. For purposes of this rule, delivery of notice is deemed complete 3 days after mailing.

(4) Within 7 days after taking possession of a motor vehicle based on lapse of insurance, the creditor shall file a motion for relief from the 11 U.S.C. § 362 stay.

(d) Second Lapse of Insurance. In the event insurance on a motor vehicle subject to this rule lapses twice during the pendency of a case, the court may, upon the filing of a motion accompanied by an affidavit evidencing compliance by the creditor with this rule and evidencing the previous lapse of insurance, grant the creditor relief, including relief from the stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362, without further hearing. If no timely response is filed, movant or the parties to an agreed order are excused from attendance at the hearing date. If no timely response is filed, LBR 9014-1 shall not apply.

The failure to file and serve a timely response shall be deemed a statement of no opposition to the relief requested.

(d) Required Disclosures and Pretrial Disclosures. When a timely response has been filed, discovery in all contested matters shall include the following:

(1) Required Disclosures. Without waiting for a discovery request, every party shall provide to every other party the information listed below. A party shall make these Required Disclosures based on the information then reasonably available and is not excused from these Required Disclosures because it has not fully completed its investigation or because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosure or because another party has not made its disclosure.

(a) The name, address and telephone number of each individual likely to have discoverable information relevant to the contested matter, identifying the subject(s) of the information;

(b) A copy of, or a description by category and location of, all documents, data compilations and tangible things in the possession, custody or control of the party that are relevant to the contested matter;

(c) The identity of any person who may be used at trial as an expert witness under Rules 702, 703 or 705 of the Federal Rules of Evidence. This disclosure shall be accompanied by a written report prepared and signed by the witness. The report shall contain a complete statement of all opinions to be expressed and the basis and reasons therefor. The data or other information considered by the witness in forming the opinions. Any exhibits to be used as a summary of or support for the opinions. The qualifications of the witness. The compensation to be paid for the testimony and a listing of any other cases in which the witness has testified as an expert at trial or by deposition within the preceding four years.

(d) The disclosures required in paragraphs (a) and (b) shall be completed no later than 7 days after service of the response or 2 business days prior to the hearing, whichever occurs first. The disclosures required in paragraph (c) shall be completed no later than 14 days after service of the response or 2 business days prior to the hearing, whichever occurs first.

(e) First Time Continuances in Contested Matters. Except with respect to stay relief addressed by LBR 4001-1, the agreement of all parties to continue for the first time a hearing in a contested matter (but not in adversary proceedings) excuses the attendance of counsel at the first scheduled hearing of the contested matter if:

(1) An Order, or an Agreed Order for First Continuance are filed no later than noon on the second business day prior to the date of the scheduled hearing;

(2) The order or agreed order specifies the date, time and place for the continued hearing of the contested matter;

(3) If the contested matter arises in a Chapter 13 case, the agreed order is signed by the Chapter 13 trustee.

- (7) File by physical delivery to the Clerk a second copy of the document submitted under seal for delivery to the Judge's chambers by the Clerk in an identically labeled envelope or container.

(c) Request Denied. If a request to file under seal is denied in whole or part, the Clerk will notify the submitting party, hold the document for 14 days for the submitting party to retrieve it and, if it is not retrieved, destroy it.

(d) Effect of Seal. Unless otherwise ordered, any document filed under seal shall be kept from public access, including inspection by attorneys and parties to the action. Any document filed under seal shall be destroyed by the Clerk unless it is retrieved by the submitting party within 1 year after the closing of the case or proceeding in which it was filed.
