In any case where the debtor is not eligible or the debtor has not made an election, the court may apply these rules if, following a hearing on a motion by a party in interest, the court determines just cause for these rules to apply to that case.

(b) Election and Verification. A debtor whose case is eligible to be treated as a complex case may file a notice of election as a complex case. The debtor shall file a notice of election concurrently with the petition. Upon the filing of the notice of election, the case shall be deemed to be a complex case unless and until otherwise ordered.

An involuntary debtor whose case is eligible to be treated as a complex case may file a notice of election as a complex case. The involuntary debtor shall file a notice of election concurrently with the filing of an answer or other responsive pleading to the petition or within 21 days after service of the summons, whichever is earlier. The debtor's attorney shall identify all matters that require consideration on or near the first day of the case.

(d) Joint Administration. An order of joint administration may be entered without an opportunity for a hearing upon the filing of a motion for joint administration pursuant to FED. R. BANKR. P. 1015 if it is supported by an affidavit, declaration or verification establishing that the joint administration of the cases is warranted and will ease the administrative burden for the court and the parties. The motion and proposed order should be filed in all affiliated cases and the order shall designate the case in which the affiliated debtors will be administered. Notice of the motion shall be served on all affected parties in all cases. An order of joint administration entered in accordance with this procedure may be reconsidered upon motion of any party in interest at any time. An order of joint administration is for procedural purposes only and shall not cause a substantive consolidation of the respective debtors' estates.

If joint administration is sought, the debtor shall file a consolidated list of unsecured creditors of no less than 30 largest unsecured creditors, provided there shall be at least five unsecured creditors included for each debtor. The list shall be filed in the proposed lead case. The debtor shall also provide to the United States trustee emails of the largest 20 unsecured creditors.

The statistical information requested by CM/ECF upon docketing shall be filled out for each separate debtor.

(f) Master Service List. The debtor shall maintain a Master Service List identifying the parties to be served whenever a motion or other document requires notice. Unless otherwise required by the Code, Rules or the court, notices of motions and other matters shall be limited to the parties on the Master Service List. The Master Service List shall initially include:

- (1) the debtor;
- (2) the debtor's attorney;
- (3) the United States trustee;

- (8) any party who specifically requested notice;
- (9) any applicable government agencies to the extent required by the Rules;
- (10) any indenture trustee; and
- (11) any petitioning creditors.

The initial Master Service List shall be filed with the petition. The debtor shall file an updated Master Service List at least every 7 days during the first 30 days of the case and at least every 30 days thereafter throughout the case; provided, if there are no changes to the list, an updated Master Service List need not be filed. The court may require an adjustment to the Master Service List at any time.

(g) Claims and Noticing Agents. Claims agents and noticing agents are not required, but if requested should be by motion.

(h) Case Management Order. A case management order shall be proposed by the debtor at the First Day Hearing and shall be entered in every complex case. The case management order shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

- (1) acknowledgment of verification of the case as a complex case;
- (2) approval of the “Master Service List” procedure as set forth herein;
- (3) approval of the “Hearing Procedures” and “Hearing Agenda” procedures as set forth herein;
- (4) instructions for arranging telephonic appearances at hearings;
- (5) claims and noticing agent contact information;
- (6) approval of the “Professional Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses” procedures as set forth herein; and
- (7) approval of the “Certificates of Service” procedure as set forth herein.

(i) First Day Hearing. If the debtor files motions or other documents that require consideration on or near the first day of the case (the “First Day Matters”), including the motions listed in LBR 2081-1(a), the debtor shall file a motion for consideration pursuant to LBR 9075-1. Unless the debtor requests otherwise, First Day Matters shall be heard within two business days of the request.

Upon the entry of an order granting the request for expedited consideration of certain First Day Matters (the “First Day Order and Notice”), the debtor’s attorney shall promptly serve a copy of the First Day Order and Notice by the most expeditious means available, including hand delivery, facsimile, electronic mail, or overnight mail, or courier on the parties on the Master Service List and any other party asserting a security interest in the assets of the debtor that are the subject of a First Day Matter. LBR 9013-3 shall apply to first-day motions except that the responsible party shall file the certificate of service at or before the commencement of the hearing.

The debtor may post the First Day Matters on the noticing agent’s website. Such a posting, together with service of the First Day Order and Notice, shall be sufficient notice of the First Day Matters and the hearing to consider those matters, provided the First Day Order and Notice includes a website URL to the documents on the website and the contact information, including the name, telephone number and email address of the person or persons whom a party may contact to obtain a copy of the First Day Matters in another format, including paper, at the expense of the debtor. If service is not made as set forth in this paragraph, service shall be made in the same manner as set forth in the previous paragraph.

LBR 2081-1(f) shall apply to any motion, proposed order or agreed order for use of cash collateral or post-petition financing.

(j) Omnibus Hearings. The debtor may request that the court establish weekly, bi-monthly or monthly dates and times for omnibus hearings (the “Omnibus Hearings”). This may be a first day motion. The court shall accommodate this request if it appears justified. The court shall adjust the frequency of the dates as necessary based on the progress of the case.

After the Omnibus Hearing dates are established and unless otherwise ordered by the court, any matter in the case whether initiated by the debtor or another party, shall be set on an Omnibus Hearing date. Any matter filed at least 21 days before the next Omnibus Hearing date shall be heard on the next Omnibus Hearing date. Objections, if any, shall be filed at least 7 days before the Omnibus Hearing date. Replies, if any, shall be filed at least two business days before the Omnibus Hearing date. The motion or other initiating document shall include the Omnibus Hearing date and time, the deadline for objections and the deadline for replies.

(k) Emergency Hearings. If a party files a motion or other document that it contends requires consideration on less than 21 days’ notice, the party shall file a separate motion for emergency hearing which shall include an explanation of the need for an emergency hearing. Motions for emergency hearings shall only be granted for cause shown. If the court grants the motion for an emergency hearing, the underlying motion or document will be set on the next Omnibus Hearing date or other date as determined by chambers. The agenda shall clearly denote any matter that is scheduled to be heard on an emergency basis.

(l) Hearing Agendas. The attorney for the debtor or trustee shall file an agenda and serve it on the Master Service List at least two business days before the hearing.

Uncontested matters shall be listed before contested matters.

For each matter, the agenda shall indicate the following:

- (1) moving party’s name;
- (2) docket number of the initiating document; and
- (3) status, e.g., settled, going forward, continuance requested, continuance opposed, continued by consent.

For each matter going forward or where a request for continuance is opposed, the agenda shall also include the following:

- (4) docket number of any objections, responses, replies and documents in support; and
- (5) filing party’s name.

Chambers shall be promptly notified of a settlement.

The agenda may list responses continued by consent collectively.

The agenda shall clearly denote any emergency hearings and evidentiary hearings.

Amended agendas shall be filed and highlighted to show the changes.

(m) Professional Compensation. To streamline the professional compensation process and more effectively enable the court and all parties to monitor the professional fees incurred, the following procedures shall apply, unless otherwise ordered.

After the end of a month for which compensation is sought, each professional seeking compensation may serve a monthly statement (the “Monthly Statement”) on (1) the debtor’s attorney, (2) the United States trustee, (3) any pre-petition secured lender, (4) any post-petition secured lender, (5) the attorney for any committee appointed under the Code and (6) any other party the court designates (collectively, the “Professional Fee Notice Parties”).

The Monthly Statement shall contain a list of individuals and their job titles who provided the services during the statement period, their billing rates, the aggregate hours spent by each individual, contemporaneously maintained time entries for each individual in increments of tenths of an hour and a reasonably detailed breakdown of expenses incurred. The Monthly Statement shall include a notice that any objections shall be filed within 14 days of service of the Monthly Statement. After the expiration of the 14 day period, the debtor shall be authorized to pay 80% of the undisputed fees and expenses identified in the Monthly Statement.

If a Monthly Statement is served, a summary of the total fees and expenses requested shall be filed.

Any objection to a Monthly Statement shall be served on the affected professional and the other Professional Fee Notice Parties. The objection shall state the nature of the objection and the amount of fees or expenses at issue. After expiration of the 14 day period, the debtor shall be authorized to pay the remainder of the fees and expenses identified in the Monthly Statement.

If any objecting party resolves a dispute with a professional, the objecting party or the debtor with the consent of the objecting party, shall serve a notice on the Professional Fee Notice Parties that the objection is withdrawn. The notice shall describe the terms of the resolution. The debtor shall be authorized to pay the portion of the fees and expenses identified in the Monthly Statement that is no longer subject to an objection.

Any objection that is not resolved shall be preserved and presented to the court at the next interim or final fee application hearing.

Whether a party objects to a Monthly Statement or not, any party may object to any fee application filed with the court in accordance with the Code. The failure to object to a Monthly Statement shall not be a waiver of any kind or prejudice that party's right to object to any subsequently filed fee application.

Each professional shall file an application for interim or final approval of allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses pursuant to §§ 330 and 331 of the Code, including compensation previously paid by the debtor on the basis of a Monthly Statement, every 120 days, unless the court orders a different frequency.

Neither the payment of nor the failure to pay, in whole or in part, monthly compensation and reimbursement of expenses shall have any effect on the court's interim or final allowance of compensation or reimbursement of expenses. All fees and expenses, whether or not paid or objected to in connection with a Monthly Statement, remain subject to review and approval by the court in connection with interim and final fee applications. All fees and expenses are subject to disgorgement or offset if not approved by the court on a final basis.

These procedures may be used for reimbursement of expenses for members of a committee appointed under the Code. The attorney for the committee shall collect and submit statements of expenses, with supporting vouchers, from the committee members.

2082-1 Chapter 12 — General

(a) Filing of Chapter 12 Plan. If a Chapter 12 debtor elects to file a plan after the filing of the petition pursuant to FED. R. BANKR. P. 3015, the debtor must serve the proposed plan or a complete summary of the proposed plan on all creditors, all equity security holders, any party in interest who has requested notice, the Chapter 12 trustee and the United States trustee and file a certificate of service pursuant to LBR 9013-3.

(b) Motions Modifying Chapter 12 Plans. In addition to the requirements of LBR 9013-1 Motion Practice Procedures, any motion or agreed order that amends or modifies a proposed or confirmed Chapter 12 plan must include a verified comparative budget and a statement of impact on creditors in the form located on the court's website at <https://www.tnmb.uscourts.gov/forms/amended-monthly-family-budget>. This provision includes but is not limited to motions and agreed orders to:

- (1) suspend payments;
- (2) incur credit; or
- (3) change the amount or timing of any payment.

(c) Reimbursement for Chapter 12 Notices. Debtors' attorneys will be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in mailing notices in an amount not to exceed $1.00 per notice ($5.00 for certified mail), but only upon receipt by the trustee of the certificate of service filed pursuant to LBR 9013-3.

2090-1 Attorneys — Admission to Practice

(a) Appearance before the court. Except as set forth below, appearance before the court on behalf of any entity may be made only by an attorney who is a member of the bar of the State of Tennessee and admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee pursuant to United States District Court’s Local Civil Rule of Court (“LR”) 83.01. Bankruptcy cases and proceedings are civil proceedings for purposes of LR83.01 (a) and (d).

Any attorney who is a member of the bar of the State of Tennessee and is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee but whose principal office is outside the state of Tennessee, must include in the signature line on all filings a notation that they are a member of the Tennessee bar and provide their Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility number.

(b) Motions for Permission to Appear Pro Hac Vice.

(1) Any attorney not admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee and not a member of the State of Tennessee bar shall file a motion and proposed order with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Tennessee for permission to appear pro hac vice. The motion must be specific to an identified bankruptcy case or proceeding. The motion must be filed no later than the first appearance or the first filing made upon which the attorney’s name appears. The motion must include a certificate of good standing from another United States District Court or a United States appellate court.

Each attorney who intends to participate in a case is responsible for ensuring that attorney is reflected as counsel of record on the electronic case docket (CM/ECF), which may require the filing of a Notice of Appearance if the attorney’s participation is not reflected as a result of any other filing.

(2) Unless counsel appearing on behalf of a party in a bankruptcy case or proceeding is both member of the State of Tennessee bar and admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee, local co-counsel must be retained. Local co-counsel must be a member of the State of Tennessee bar and admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee. Local co-counsel shall file a notice of appearance that identifies the party represented. Local counsel assumes all duties and responsibilities of an attorney for that party. Local co-counsel shall sign all documents filed on behalf of a represented party. Any notice required by statute, rule, local rule, or order may be satisfied by giving notice to local co-counsel. Any local co-counsel who is a member of the Tennessee bar and admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee but whose principal office is outside the state of Tennessee, must include in the signature line on all filings a notation that they are a member of the Tennessee bar and provide their Tennessee Board of Professional Responsibility number.

(3) Any attorney representing the United States Government, or any agency thereof, or the State of Tennessee may appear and participate in particular cases or proceedings in the attorney's official capacity if the attorney is a member in good standing of the bar of a District Court of the United States or a United States appellate court.

(4) District Court LR83.01(b) and (d) apply to attorneys seeking pro hac vice admission before the bankruptcy court.

(5) Non-Compliance and Discretion of the Court. Any filings made on behalf of a party that fail to comply with this rule in retention of local counsel or notification of Tennessee bar status may be stricken or other penalties imposed by the court, either upon motion or upon the court's own initiative.

A bankruptcy judge assigned to the case has discretion to require, upon notice, that an attorney who resides outside the district designate as local co-counsel an attorney who practices before this court and maintains a law office in this district. Local co-counsel shall be prepared to present and argue the party's position at any hearing or proceeding.

2090-2 Attorneys — Discipline & Disbarment

(a) Enforcement of Standards of Professional Conduct. The standards of professional conduct for any attorney who appears for any purpose shall include the current rules of professional conduct adopted by the Supreme Court of the State of Tennessee ("Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct").

(b) Disbarment and Discipline.

(1) Any attorney who appears for any purpose submits to the discipline of this court. A violation of any of the current Tennessee Rules of Professional Conduct in connection with any matter pending before this court subjects the offending attorney to appropriate disciplinary action.

(2) Except as provided below, United States District Court's Local Civil Rule of Court ("LR") 83.01(c) applies to all attorneys who appear before the bankruptcy court. For cause shown, attorneys who practice in this court, after an opportunity to be heard has been given, may be suspended from practice, reprimanded, or subject to such other discipline as the court may deem proper.

(3) The court may, en banc, hear and act upon any disciplinary matter in connection with any complaints of professional misconduct by an attorney who practices before this court. In the alternative, or in conjunction with any disciplinary action, the court may forward any complaints to the appropriate disciplinary authority.

2091-1 Attorneys — Withdrawals & Substitutions

(a) Withdrawal Generally. Except as otherwise provided in this rule or by order of the court, an attorney may not withdraw in any case or proceeding except by leave of court. A motion for leave to withdraw shall be filed and served on the client, parties in interest, the trustee (if applicable), the United States trustee and opposing counsel.

(b) Withdrawal for Party in Interest Other Than the Debtor(s). An attorney for a party in interest, other than the debtor(s), who is not a party to any pending contested matter or adversary proceeding may withdraw his or her appearance without court order by filing a notice of withdrawal as attorney, stating the name and mailing address of the client and serving copies of the notice on the client, the debtor(s), the trustee (if applicable) and the United States trustee.

(c) Withdrawal of Co-Counsel. An attorney seeking to withdraw from representing a client in a case or adversary proceeding at a time when such client is represented by other counsel of record in such matter may withdraw his or her appearance by filing a notice of withdrawal that is approved and signed by the client and other counsel of record for the client. Copies of the notice shall be served on parties in interest.

(d) Substitutions of Counsel. Counsel seeking to withdraw from representation of a client may file a joint motion with counsel seeking to be substituted as counsel for such client, in the relevant case or proceedings, requesting authority of the court for substitution of counsel. Such motion shall certify that the client has consented to the substitution or be signed by the client and such motion shall be served on the client and parties in interest. The court may grant a joint motion for substitution of counsel without a hearing. Substitution of counsel is subject to the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, Local Bankruptcy Rules and Administrative Orders of the court with regard to retention of professionals, disclosure, payment of professionals and related matters.

(e) Substitution of Counsel Within Same Law Firm. If an attorney from the same law firm as the attorney of record wishes to substitute as counsel for a party in place of an attorney of record because (1) the attorney of record is leaving the law firm or (2) the attorney of record will no longer serve as attorney of record, the substituting attorney shall file a notice of substitution of counsel without leave of court.

(f) Substitutions in Multiple Cases. If any attorney is to be substituted in twenty cases or more, then the attorney is to initiate a miscellaneous proceeding by filing a Joint Motion Substituting Attorneys or a Motion Substituting Attorneys with an accompanying agreed or proposed order. The agreed or proposed order shall be uploaded in CM/ECF using the electronic orders module. Either the Joint Motion Substituting Attorney or an attachment (or exhibit) to the motion shall provide a list of all active cases in which a substitution is to occur. For substitutions of counsel in Chapter 13 or Chapter 12 cases, the Joint Motion and proposed order shall state the manner in which any future attorney's fees in the substituted cases shall be paid by the trustee. Counsel shall provide at least 24 hours' notice to the United States Trustee's Office before filing the Joint Motion Substituting Attorney.

PART IV

THE DEBTOR: DUTIES AND BENEFITS

4001-1 Automatic Stay — Relief From

(a) Limitation on Combined Motions. A motion for relief from the 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) stay shall not contain additional requests for relief, except for abandonment and/or adequate protection regarding the same asset. When other requests for relief are impermissibly combined with a motion for relief from the 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) stay, the motion for stay relief (and any related abandonment and/or adequate protection) will be heard. The impermissible requests for relief will only be considered when separately filed.

(b) Procedure. Procedure for prosecuting and responding to a request for relief from the stay is controlled by a Notice of Preliminary Hearing and Prehearing Order issued by the clerk after the filing of the motion.

(c) Codebtor Stay. Any motion for relief from the codebtor stay under 11 U.S.C. § 1301 shall be made by separate motion in compliance with the LBR 9013-1 Motion Practice Procedures.

(d) Continuance of Preliminary or Final Hearing. The agreement of all parties to continue the preliminary or final hearing of a request for relief from the stay excuses the attendance of counsel if a joint motion and agreed order to continue are filed on or before the second business day prior to the preliminary or final hearing. Otherwise, announcement of an agreement to continue may be made by counsel at the first call of the motion docket.

Agreed orders continuing the preliminary hearing of a request for relief from the stay shall specify the date and time of the continued hearing, shall continue the stay in effect and include a certificate of service consistent with LBR 9013-3.

(e) Order Granting Relief from Automatic Stay. In Chapter 7, 12 and 13 cases, orders granting relief from the automatic stay in 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) must comply with the following provisions.

(1) Affected Collateral. The order must describe the real or personal property that is security for the movant's debt.

(2) Form of Order. The forms located on the court's website at https://www.tnmb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms/local_bankruptcy_forms shall be used when there is Affected Collateral and:

- (a) no opposition to the motion for stay relief was filed;
- (b) any filed opposition was withdrawn; or

(c) any opposition was overruled by the court at the Scheduled Hearing.

(3) Abandonment by Trustee. If the motion for stay relief states that the Affected Collateral is burdensome or of inconsequential value to the estate, and the trustee does not oppose stay relief, then the forms located at the court's website at https://www.tnmb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms/local_bankruptcy_forms versions 3 or 4 shall be used. Abandonment is only effective if the trustee approves the order for entry.

(4) FED. R. BANKR. P. 4001(a)(3) Stay. If the motion for stay relief requests that FED.R. BANKR. P. 4001(a)(4) not apply and there is no opposition to that request, then the forms located at the court's website at https://www.tnmb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms/local_bankruptcy_forms versions 2 or 4 shall be used.

(5) Agreed Orders. This LBR 4001-1(d) is not applicable when a motion for stay relief is resolved by agreed order.

(f) Agreed Order Granting Stay Relief and/or Abandonment.

(1) Any agreed order which grants stay relief and/or abandonment when no motion is filed shall prominently display in bold text the following language: "ORDERED, Any objection to this agreed order must be filed within 14 days of the entry of the order."

(2) Pursuant to FED. R. BANKR. P. 4001(d)(5), the agreed order shall be served upon any party who has an interest in collateral or is jointly obligated.

(g) Agreed Order Granting Adequate Protection Payments. Any agreed order which includes provisions for adequate protection payments shall be filed as a Motion for Approval of Agreed Order consistent with FED. R. BANKR. P. 4001(d) and shall be filed pursuant to LBR 9013-1 Motion Practice Procedures with the notice period shortened to 14 days.

(h) Alternative Procedure for Extend Stay Requests in Chapter 13 Cases

(1) In General. The procedures outlined in this rule apply to requests to extend the automatic stay of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) in cases filed under Chapter 13 of Title 11 where there has been a previous dismissal of a case within the prior year. This local rule modifies the normal emergency procedures under LBR 9075-1. For this Rule to apply, the debtor must be represented by counsel.

(2) Procedure. For the court to extend the automatic stay without the debtor having to appear, the debtor must comply with the following procedures:

(A) The motion to extend the automatic stay must be filed by counsel of record within five business days of the petition date.

(B) The debtor must file a notice and motion using the form located on court's website at https://www.tnmb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms/local_bankruptcy_forms.

(C) The debtor's attorney must select a hearing date from the court's availability calendar with an objection deadline that is at least 14 days after the filing and service of the notice and motion.

(D) The deadline for objections must be at least four business days before the hearing date.

(E) The hearing date must occur within 30 days of the filing of the petition.

(F) The notice and motion must include a declaration under penalty of perjury signed by the debtor(s) that all factual statements included in the notice and motion are accurate.

9013-2 Briefs & Memoranda of Law

9014-1 Contested Matters — Pretrial Disclosures and Court Filings

(a) General — This rule applies to any contested matter—whether arising as a result of an “if objection” motion under the LBR 9013-1 Motion Practice Procedures followed by an objection being filed or as the result of any other motion set by the court for a hearing where a response is filed opposing the relief sought. The timing and necessity of initial disclosures are governed by this rule, and subsections (a), (d) and (f) of FED. R. BANKR. P. 7026 do not apply to such contested matters.

(b) Pretrial Orders and Conferences. Unless provided otherwise in a notice or order, pretrial orders and pretrial conferences are not required in contested matters. At any time, any party may file a motion requesting a pretrial conference.

(c) Response Deadline. In all contested matters not controlled by the “if objection” process under the LBR 9013-1 Motion Practice Procedures, unless an order or notice provides otherwise, any party in opposition to the relief requested shall file and serve a “response” or “objection” on or before the earlier of 21 days after service of the paper commencing the contested matter or 7 days before any scheduled hearing of the contested matter. The failure to file and serve a timely response shall be deemed a statement of no opposition to the relief requested. The court may enter an order granting the relief or may proceed with the hearing as scheduled despite the lack of a response. In the case of any contested matter set for hearing by the court and not governed by LBR 9013-1 Motion Practice Procedures, the presence of movant’s counsel at the hearing is required unless an order has already been entered granting the relief at the time of the hearing.

(d) Pretrial Disclosures and Court Filings. Although various pretrial initial disclosures are not automatically required in contested matters pursuant to FED. R. BANKR. P. 7026, either the movant or the respondent in any contested matter may invoke certain initial disclosure requirements pursuant to subsection (2) below. Regardless of whether the initial disclosure requirements are invoked by either party, all parties must make certain pretrial filings and exchange certain information in advance of the hearing as set forth in subsection (1) below.

(1) Pretrial Court Filings. In addition to the initial disclosures that may be invoked by paragraph (2) below, and regardless of whether such pretrial disclosure process has been invoked, every party shall file with the court and provide to every other party by noon two business days prior to the hearing the following information regarding evidence it may present at a hearing or trial (other than solely for impeachment purposes):

- (a) The name, address, and telephone number of each witness the party expects to present or may call if the need arises;
- (b) A copy of the transcript of testimony or affidavit of any witness whose testimony will be offered in that form;
- (c) A list and copy, with appropriate identification, of each document or other exhibit a party expects to offer or may offer as evidence. (For any matter to be heard in the Nashville Division, the exhibits shall be filed and exchanged utilizing the court's Electronic Evidence Submission Application pursuant to the Electronic Evidence Procedures.)
- (d) An expert report of the type described in LBR 9014-1(d)(2)(c) herein for any expert expected to testify.

(2) Initial Disclosures. If the movant elects to require pretrial disclosures as set forth herein, movant shall include the following statement in bold in the first paragraph of the motion:

“Disclosures pursuant to LBR 9014-1(d)(1) shall be required for this matter.” If the movant does not include such language invoking the disclosure requirement, the respondent may invoke the requirement by including the same language in bold in the first paragraph of the response. If either the movant or a respondent invokes the initial disclosure requirements herein, each party shall provide to every other party to the contested matter the information listed below in subsections (a) thru (c). A party shall make these required disclosures based on the information then reasonably available and is not excused from these required disclosures because it has not fully completed its investigation or because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosure or because another party has not made its disclosure.

- (a) The name, address, and telephone number of each individual likely to have discoverable information relevant to the contested matter, identifying the subject(s) of the information;
